Carolyn,

Thanks for taking the time to help our viewers find new jobs. You did an awesome informative interview. Hope you enjoyed your time back home!

All the best to you...

Thank You Carolyn!

Last evening's hour with you was the most productive and informative time I've spent during my 3 week job search... I'm looking forward to 'fine tuning' it (the resume) with your solid advice and expanded ideas from your book. I will then post it on linkedin.com, hot jobs, and craigslist as you suggested.

Jennifer

A better resume, Thanks to you...

Wow! You really do have a gift for what you do, a true resume wordsmith. I would never [have] thought to structure it (the resume) that way and the verbage grabs your attention... I'm sure I can modify your suggestion and make it my own. Thanks again

Steve

Just a note to thank you for your help. I have been offered a position and I have accepted it. I can only think that it was because of the revisions made to my resume that finally "made" it happen. Thank you again.

Delighted Readers

Carolyn,

Just wanted you to know this 65 year old man used your book "Ten Easy Steps To A Perfect Resume" and after being without a job for three weeks I was granted an interview and guess what ...a new job. Thanks for writing such an easy step by step guide for writing a resume. And it only took me 1.5 -2 hours to complete. I will share your book with my friends should they need to be on a job hunt. Again, good job !!!

Carolyn,

Many thanks for the info re Linked In and for meeting with me at length yesterday. I very much enjoyed hearing your perspective and have now read your books--both of them good, quick reads brimming with ideas.

All best, Barbara

Thank you emails to Carolyn for Placement:

Carolyn:

It was a real pleasure talking to you yesterday. I believe your approach to recruiting will be most successful and rewarding; as it's unique, refreshing and targeted for results. I am also confident that our association will be mutually beneficial. If you need more information, please don't hesitate to call. Thank you again.

Respectfully,

Abdul

Dear Carolyn,

I want to thank you so much for helping me, believing in me and supporting me throughout the job search process. I really never thought someone as busy and successful as you would acknowledge me since I am still early in my career. I appreciate all your help, guidance and advice a lot... really. You'll never know how grateful and happy I am and I owe it to you. I'm so lucky I have met you, and thanks for finding me. God bless you.

Sincerely,

Mia

Dear Mrs. Thompson,

Here is a revised copy of my resume. I want to thank you for your much needed straight forward approach that you took with me this morning. I recognize that I have been fortunate to live a sheltered life, but to make it in the real world the truth is absolutely necessary. Even if I do not find employment with your services, I want you to know that our conversation has benefited me in more ways than you could know.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Doreen

Ms. Thompson,

I wanted to send you a quick email thanking you for the taking the time out of your busy day to contact me regarding the Salary Survey which I had requested. I was very impressed by what you had to say about CMCS and your staff and the direction you folks take as far as recruiting goes. I definitely agree with you and would like to see others in your profession take your approach.

As one who uses and has used firms in the recruiting industry for my personal career searches or a corporate search to find talent, I see some of the things which CMCS tries to clear itself from. Again, thanks for taking the time and hopefully we can meet sometime soon to discuss "career management and corporate search".

Regards,

Steve

Dear Ms. Thompson,

I just wanted to thank you for your time last night at the networking workshop. I was the girl who met Donald Rumsfeld the night earlier. I wasn't planning on attending the Networking Fair, but after listening to you I felt so much more confident about myself that I decided to stop by. All of the career/internship/networking fairs I'd been to have never had people who worked on political campaigns (which is what I think I want to do), but last night was the night! And thanks to you, I was able to ask meaningful questions of her. She was a Democrat and I am a Republican, so I thought I'd just ask her general questions about what she did and how she got involved and then move on, but she mentioned that she was good friends with her Republican counterpart and gave me her information! I really am astounded at how quickly you were able to teach effective networking skills, and I am eternally grateful!

Thanks again,

Anna

Just want to send you a quick email to let you know that it's been a pleasure working with you during my job search. I'd have to be frank that initially I was a bit hesitant in working with another recruiter due to some poor past experiences.

However, you have changed my opinion on working with recruiters. In the last few weeks, you have been diligent and provided some crucial info during the interviewing process. Bottom line is that you have delivered on what you promised and built a trusting relationship.

To Whom It May Concern:
Re: Carolyn Thompson Barry

I submit this letter of reference in support of Carolyn Thompson. I have had the pleasure of working on several engagements with her and her team. I have found that she is professional, driven, and results oriented. One engagement in particular required that she assist with the staffing of a newly relocated corporate office in the DC area. We had to recruit in excess of 200 positions within 90 days. These positions ranged from Executive Assistants to Vice Presidents. Carolyn exceeded our expectations on this project. I would highly recommend Carolyn for any assignment that may present itself. Her team has the capability to produce results at all levels in any functional area. If you require any additional information please feel free to contact me.

Sincerely,

David McGee
